SPRING 2009

VOLUME 14, NUMBER 1

COMMUNITY NEWS

High School Presents Seussical

The Penn-Trafford Drama Guild will present Seussical the Musical as their spring performance.

The show will be presented on:
 Friday, March 27 at 7:30 p.m.,
 Saturday, March 28 at 1:30 and 7:30 p.m.,
 Friday, April 3 at 7:30 p.m., and Saturday, April 4 at 1:30 and 7:30 p.m.

Seussical is based on the works of Dr. Seuss and weaves together his most famous tales and characters from at least fifteen of his books.

The show follows the adventures of Horton, an elephant who one day hears voices coming from a speck of dust. He soon discovers that within this tiny speck exists the smallest planet in the universe!

On this tiny planet lives a tiny race of creatures known as Whos. Although ridiculed by the other animals in the Jungle of Nool for believing in something he cannot see, Horton stubbornly persists in his belief that the Whos exist.

Traveling everywhere from the Jungle of Nool to McEligott's Pool, some of the characters fall in love, some have desperate adventures and some even save the world.

Characters include Horton the Elephant, JoJo, Gertrude McFuzz, Mayzie LaBird and the Whos of Whoville.

Ticket prices are $8 for adults and $5 for students and senior citizens.

Ticket sales to the public will be held in the auditorium lobby from 6:30-8:00 pm on the following dates: March 18 & 19, March 23 through March 26, and March 30 through April 2.

From the Township Tax Collector

2009 County/Municipal Real Estate Taxes

The Westmoreland County and Penn Township real estate tax statements, as well as the street light assessment statements, for the year 2009 were mailed in late February.

Property owners who have not received their tax statements should call the Penn Township real estate tax office at 724-744-1414. Also, please call if you believe that you received a tax statement in error, (e.g., it should have been sent to your mortgage company).

April 30, 2009 is the last day for property owners to pay the Westmoreland County and Penn Township real estate tax at the 2% discount amount. Payments postmarked after 4/30/2009 through 6/30/2009 will be accepted at the face amount. Payments postmarked after 6/30/2009 through 12/31/2009 are subject to a 10% penalty.

Penn Township street light assessment payments are due at the face amount by 4/30/2009. Payments postmarked 5/1/2009 through 12/31/2009 will be accepted at the 5% penalty amount.

Real estate tax payments should be made to Larry Wojcik, the Penn Township Tax Collector and Treasurer, who is located in the municipal building located at 2001 Municipal Court, Harrison City, PA 15636.

Tax Collector Continued...

His phone number is 724-744-1414, and normal business hours are Monday - Thursday, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

2009 LST Taxes

The Local Service Tax (LST), formerly the EMS (Emergency and Municipal Services), tax forms were sent out the first week of March. The first quarter payments are due by April 30, 2009.

All persons who are employed or self-employed, including both resident and non-resident individuals, eighteen years of age or older as of January 1, 2009, engaging in an occupation within Penn Township are liable for this tax. A refund can be given at the end of the year if the employed has income from all sources less than $12,000.

Self-employed individuals that have not received their LST tax form should contact the tax office at 724-744-1414.

Important Note: If you have a business and have not paid your LST tax, you are required by township ordinance to pay this $52 tax. This includes all self-employed individuals!

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

ALSO SEE the Club and Organization News section for information about other events.

APRIL 2009

March 27, 28, April 3, 4 – Penn-Trafford High School Spring Musical

The Penn-Trafford Drama Guild will present Seussical the Musical as their spring performance. Six shows will be performed on the following dates and times: Fridays, March 27 & April 3 – 7:30 p.m. Saturdays, March 28 & April 4 – 1:30 & 7:30 p.m.

Adults $8; students/senior citizens $5. For more information, see page 1.

April 4 - Tire, Battery, Appliance and Electronics Recycling

Westmoreland CleanWays sponsors collections every spring and fall for those "hard to dispose of" items that include tires, vehicle (lead acid) batteries, appliances (including freon-containing), scrap metal and electronics. Once collected, as much of the material as possible is recycled. On Saturday, April 4, Westmoreland CleanWays will be collecting items at Norwin Hills Shopping Center from 8:30 am - noon.

The fee for automotive and light truck tires is $1.75 per tire off-rim and $2.75 per tire on-rim. (Fees for tractor tires and tractor trailer tires will be higher).

Freon-containing appliances have a fee of $20 for tagging and disposal, but all other items/appliances for scrap metal and vehicle batteries may be turned in free of charge.

There is a fee for electronics. For more information, visit PA CleanWays at www.westmorelandcleanways.org.

April 18 – 8th Annual Westmoreland Earth Day

Activities for all ages, abilities, and interests will be available at Westmoreland Earth Day to be held on Saturday, April 18 from 12 noon -4 p.m. The Winnie Palmer Nature Reserve at St. Vincent College in Latrobe will host the event, where a variety of organizations will share hands-on activities, displays and information. Admission is free. For more info, visit www.westmorelandearthday.org.

Westmoreland Earth Day began in 2002 when a group of environmental organizations gathered to create an event that would engage the surrounding communities in their many activities. The result was Westmoreland Earth Day, a family focused event now in its fourth year. One of the state's largest Earth Day celebrations, Westmoreland Earth Day brings more than 80 exhibitors to share information and activities with the community. These exhibitors are representatives of non-profit groups, state and federal organizations all working to protect, restore and enhance the environment in your area!

April 18 – Backyard Composting Workshop

Westmoreland CleanWays is sponsoring a backyard composting workshops at Oak Hollow Park in North Huntingdon from 9 am to noon on Saturday April 18.

Attendance is free; however, pre-registration is required no later than 1 week before the workshop date. Contact Westmoreland CleanWays at 724-836-4129.

April 23-25, 27-280 – Friends of Penn Area Library Used Book Sale

The Friends of the Penn Area Library next used book sale will be held on April 23-25 and April 27-28 during regular library hours, which are Monday through Thursday from 10:00 a.m. until 8:00 pm and Friday and Saturday from 10:00 am until 5:00 pm.

There will be a great selection of materials, so mark your calendars to attend. Both children's and adult's books will be available. All proceeds benefit the library.

The library accepts donations of books, videos, music, etc. throughout the year. Recycle by donating your items to a good cause. Drop them off at the library during the hours they are open.

April 25 and 26 – Used Clothing and Furniture Collection

The non-profit Christian Laymen Corps (CLC) will hold its next clothing and furniture drive on April 25 and April 26, 2009 in the Penn Township municipal building parking lot on Municipal Street in Harrison City. Hours will be from 10 am until 2 p.m. on both days.

Gently-used items in good condition are needed including: bedding, linens, towels, dishes, silverware, utensils, clothing, nonperishable foods, toys, and school supplies.

Good furniture and working appliances are also desperately needed. If you cannot transport the furniture or appliances, please call the CLC store at 724-834-4464 to schedule a pickup.

Through generous community donations, the CLC's thrift store and outreach programs have served thousands of people in Westmoreland and Fayette Counties, and in West Virginia, by providing clothing, furniture, emergency food, and other assistance.

The CLC, which operates solely with donations and volunteers, has also helped needy people from more than 70 area agencies including The Red Cross, St. Vincent DePaul Center, the Blackburn Center Against Domestic and Sexual Violence, Salvation Army, and the Westmoreland Case Management and Supports, Inc.

Donations are also accepted year-round at the CLC Thrift Store on 258 East Pittsburgh Street, Greensburg, from 10 am to 2:00 pm, at the rear of the building.

JUNE 2009

No events scheduled.

CLUB AND ORGANIZATION NEWS

Recreation Groups

Penn Area Library

Summer Reading to Begin in June: It's almost time for Summer Reading to begin. The program will start with a two week sign-up period beginning on June 1st, and then the first program will be on June 15. Don't worry if you can't come in during that time frame because you can sign-up all the way up until one week before the program ends.

This year's theme is "Be Creative @ Your Library" and is sure to be loads of fun. There will be programs featuring music, the arts, and so much more. Be sure to watch the web site (www.pennlib.org) and check with the library for more details.

Chess Lessons Continue: Chess lessons have resumed at the Penn Area Library. They are held on Tuesday evenings. All are welcome! The library's instructor, Mr. Nerel, is great, and you will have fun while learning a few new moves. This program is for all ages. Don't be shy, come in and enjoy chess!

Humanities Speaker on April 16: This spring the library has been fortunate to receive a Pennsylvania Humanities Grant for a speaker. Benjamin Soto will be at the library on April 16th at 6:30 pm to talk about how the circus helped individuals during the Great Depression. Mr. Soto is currently a Commonwealth Speaker and the Executive Director of the Zany Umbrella Circus. He received a B. A. in Architectural and Studio Arts from the University of Pittsburgh. His main interest lies in using Circus Arts as a vehicle for social change, an idea that has allowed him to perform for audiences of all shapes, sizes, ages, colors, and cultures from Congressmen at the White House to the recovering children in post-Taliban rule in Kabul, Afghanistan. Be sure to come to this program. It is suitable for families except for the very young.

Adult Winter Reading Concluding: Adult Winter Reading has been going on in the library since January and will end on Monday, April 20th. Thanks to that are participating!

A huge thank you to all of the sponsors including: Mr. John Lindsey, Sherm Edwards Candy, Calligarios, Cinti Chiropractic, Anne Allen, Donna Orange, Devra Cherrone, Joseph and Marie Burns, Ketter's Restaurant, Greensburg and Delmont Walmarts, and Don Fulmer. Prizes will be drawn on April 22nd in the library.

In late in September or early October, the library expects to have Fall Adult Reading with great books and more prizes.

Computer Instructor Needed: The library is still in need of a computer instructor. If you have the time and talent, please consider helping in this volunteer position. The library has had several inquires about computer classes. A free basic computer class would be great to offer. If you are interested, please call (724-744-4414), e-mail (mfulmer@pennlib.org), or visit the library.

Storytimes Taking a Break in April: Story times will be ending in April to make way for summer reading. They will resume in September with two toddler programs, two pre-school programs and one baby lap sit. The guys and gals reads will also slow down so that Miss Pat can re-group for summer. Remember teens are very welcome in the Summer Reading Program.

Friends of the Library Holding Book Sale: The Friends of the Library are planning a spring book sale for April 23 through the 25 and 27 and 28th. The sale will be held in the multi-purpose room of the library. All are welcome and it will surely be a very good sale with many great books. The Friends group meets every third Thursday of the month. All are welcome!

Eagle Scout Help the Library: Penn Area Library has been fortunate to have some excellent Boy Scouts, D. Winge and M. Ruschak willing to work on projects to earn their Eagle Scout rankings. They painted the public restrooms, staff restroom, staff lounge, entry - way, and multi-purpose room. Thanks to them for jobs that were very well done and greatly appreciated.

Raffle for American Girl Dolls: The American Girls Tea is held each year in October. Last year the library was able to purchase two American Girl dolls and some great clothing. This year the library is again having a raffle in order to purchase more dolls. They hope to be able to purchase three dolls of the year from the proceeds of the raffle. Tickets go on sale on June 1. They will be $1.00 for one (1) or $2.00 dollars for three (3). Keep checking the web site to get more details on the tea as it gets a little closer to the date.

Quilt Groups Remain Active: The library's quilt groups are still meeting in the library, and they are making some gorgeous quilts. Q-PALS meets twice a month and The Quilting Connection meets every Wednesday in the multi-purpose room of the library.

The Penn Township

is published quarterly by the township. Your comments and contributions are always welcome.
Mail, e-mail, or drop off your information to:

The Penn Township Pipeline
P.O. Box 452
Harrison City, PA 15636
pipeline@penntwp.org

Thank you to Annette Blonar of Level Green for volunteering her time to edit
The Penn Township Pipeline and to everyone who contributed information to this issue.

Enjoy Your Library! Please come into the library and enjoy their great collection of materials and all their free programs. In these tough economic times your greatest bargain is a library card. It's free! Your card can open your world to many adventures through books and can help you in so many ways such as using the Internet to find a job or just to reading a magazine or newspaper.

If you have questions or comments please call the library at 724-744-4414; e-mail mfulmer@pennlib.org or better yet, come in and visit.

Or, visit the web site, www.pennlib.org. The collection is web based, and you can see what they have in real time. You can re-new, place a hold, or ask for books to be pulled and waiting for you at the desk all from your home.

Don't forget the great Power Library and Grolier databases where you can find anything from new car prices to the best washing machine and so much more! Keeping checking the web site for four new databases coming soon compliments of the Westmoreland County Library System. They will all be accessible from the library or from your home. All you will need is a library card.

See you in the library!

Penn-Trafford Area Recreation Commission (PTARC)

Winter/Spring Activities Underway: PTARC's Winter/Spring Activity Guide was mailed to residents of the Penn-Trafford School District during the final week of December.

The activity guide is also posted online at ptarc.org and is available at the PTARC office in the Penn Township Municipal Building. Watch for the Summer Activity Guide in May!

About PTARC: PTARC is a nonprofit, intergovernmental organization formed between the boroughs of Penn, Trafford, and Manor, Penn Township, and the Penn-Trafford School District.

PTARC's mission is to provide the opportunity for life-long learning, fitness and fun through wholesome, affordable, recreational activities and safe, appealing facilities. They can be reached at 724-744-2171, ext. 204 or 205.

Penn-Trafford Adult Education (PTAE)

Register for Spring Classes: There is still time to register for some of the classes being offered in the spring session. Class listings and registration forms are available at the Penn Area and Trafford Libraries, the Harrison City and Trafford Post Offices and the S&T Bank on Route 130, and online at www.ptae.org.

Registrations are accepted up until one week before the class begins. Most classes are held at Penn-Trafford High School.

About Penn-Trafford Adult Education: Penn-Trafford Adult Education is an all-volunteer organization that has been providing educational opportunities for adults since 1962. For more information on the group and its programs, contact Devra Cherrone, chairperson, at 724-744-2303.

Penn-Trafford Adult Education is always looking for new volunteers to help organize and run classes for the community and instructors for new classes. Contact them if you are interested.
